Dear Colossal Comics Collection,

I love your new book. It is radical, and now every time I want a comic book, I can pick one up at the grocery store. I would love to see Darkwing Duck in the future issues, because he is my favorite new Disney character. A Mickey Mouse story would spice things up even more. Keep up the good work.

Zachariah Thoreen
Orlando, FL

Thanks! And thanks to the many others who wrote letters that we have no room to print.

* * *

Dear Sir/Madam:

I picked up Disney's first Colossal Comics Collection for my 11-year-old son. I proudly handed it to him, only to be informed within five minutes that the comics had previously been published in Disney Adventures.

Quite frankly, I've been gypped!

Janice M. Hall
Safety Harbor, FL

I'm sorry that you feel gypped. We never wanted to mislead anyone. Since last issue, each copy has noted where our stories were originally presented. And we'll add new stories, starting in issue #5.

Dear Colossal Comics,

I just bought your first issue, and it's great!

I'm writing to tell you what characters I'd like to see. I want ducks! Uncle Scrooge is my favorite main Disney character. Now, on to Darkwing Duck. I love him! Be sure to have lots of him and his friends.

Joanna Cavanaugh
Glendale, AZ

*As it happens, next issue features--
Hold it! This is my blurb!
I, Darkwing Duck, am next issue's star! It will feature me exclusively, telling how I met my friends Gosalyn and Launchpad...plus some of my very own enemies!*

My issue appears in May! So prepare to get dangerous!

Thanks, Darkwing.

This issue's cover was penciled by Cosme Quartieri, inked by Roberto Bat and colored by Cris Palomino.

Join us here next time, won't you?

David Seidman, editor

This issue's stories were originally presented in Disney Adventures (comics editors: Marv Wolfman, Michael Hill & Heidi MacDonald), Disney's Tale Spin (editor: David Cody Weiss) and Disney's Chip 'n' Dale Rescue Rangers (editor: David Seidman).
